10 WHEREAS, it preliminarily appears that: the class representatives and class counsel have
11 adequately represented the class; the Settlement Agreement is the product of extensive, arm’s
12 length negotiations; the relief provided in the Settlement Agreement is adequate; and the 13 Settlement Agreement treats class members equitably relative to each other,

14 The Court hereby GRANTS the Parties’ motion and ORDERS as follows:

- 15 1. The Court does hereby preliminarily approve the Settlement Agreement, including all

3. The Court reserves the right to adjourn the date of the Fairness Hearing or modify any other dates set forth herein without further notice to Class Members, and retains jurisdiction to consider all further applications arising out of or connected with the settlement.

4. The Court approves, as to form and content, the Class Notice attached to the Settlement Agreement as Exhibit B. Not later than seven (7) calendar days following entry of this order: (1) U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (“USCIS”) and Executive Office for Immigration Review (“EOIR”) shall post the Class Notice in both English and Spanish and the Settlement Agreement on their websites; (2) EOIR shall post a paper copy of the Class Notice in both English and Spanish on the bulletin board, or other similar location, in the waiting room of each Immigration Court; (3) Plaintiffs’ counsel shall post the Class Notice in both English and Spanish and the Settlement Agreement on their organizational websites; and (4) Plaintiffs’ counsel shall circulate the Class Notice on national immigration listservs.

5. The Court previously certified the class as follows:

In addition, the Court previously certified the following subclasses:

Remand Subclass. Class members whose Asylum EAD Clocks were or will be stopped following a decision by an Immigration Judge and whose Asylum EAD Clocks are not or will not be started or restarted following an appeal in which either the BIA or a federal court of appeals remands their case for further adjudication of their asylum and/or withholding of removal claims.

Unaccompanied Children Subclass. Class members in removal proceedings who are unaccompanied children (“UCs”) pursuant to 6 U.S.C. § 279(g) and whose Asylum EAD Clocks are not started or will be stopped while waiting for USCIS to adjudicate the filed Asylum Application.

Change of Venue Subclass. Class Members in removal proceedings whose removal proceedings have been or will be transferred to a different Immigration Court through a granted change of venue motion, and for whom EOIR has stopped or will stop the Asylum EAD Clock based solely on the change of venue.

These are the class and subclasses for purposes of settlement purposes.

6. Any Class Member may object to the Settlement Agreement and may also (but need not) appear in person or through counsel at the Fairness Hearing; provided, however, no Class Member or any other person or entity shall be heard or entitled to contest such matters unless that person has fully complied with the terms set out herein.
